1	Do Letter No. 2537 dated 5-1-37 from The Huzur Secy to His Highness states that H.H. has approved of a laced belt with a metallic rectangular disc with Gandaberunda embossed thereon being worn at Palace Darbars by Those that prefer it to do so in lieu of Kammarband Submitted with Refce. JS 8/4/37
H.H.	The "Kammarband" under the existing Civil Uniform Regulation is to be of white silk or white cotton bleached or unbleached with gold lace border along the length. One width of the gold lace border has also been prescribed in the case of the higher grades. It is now said that a "laced belt with a metallic rectangular disc with Gandaberunda embossed thereon may be worn in lieu of Kammarband It is presumed that— (1) the colour of the belt and width of the lace prescribed under the old order, continue unchanged. Perhaps metallic discs of the pattern
